

LIFE LESSONS FOR ABIGAIL CARLEY KRENTZMAN

As you grow older remember the things that make you feel young

Becoming someone respected requires respecting other people

Ignorance traps your mind intelligence sets your mind free

Good things come to those who wait, great things come to those who go get them

Always believe in yourself in whatever you do

In the midst of chaos always try to remain calm

Living in the moment shouldn't replace planning for the future

Careful thinking now will prevent careless actions later

Accept things you can't do by focusing on things you can do well

Recognizing failure is an important step to achieving success

Laughter is gift that is best shared with other people

Enjoy the simple things in life now because they won't be around forever

You can never say "I love you" too many times

Keep the bad memories out of your mind and the good ones close to your heart

Reaching for the stars should never mean taking your feet off the ground

Encourage others to share their feelings with you

Nobody deserves your tears unless they can make you smile

Testing boundaries is a lot better than not having them at all

Zest for life is always better when it is shared with other people

Making big steps forward sometimes requires taking small steps backward

Attempting something and failing is better than not trying at all

No lessons are more important than the ones you learn in life.
